

Cogar Picks Treasurer; Retains Law Firm

HERKIMER — Cogar Corp., which is building a plant in the Town of Wappinger, Dutchess County, reported today the election of Albert Mazloom as company treasurer.

Mazloom has been associated with Cogar for the last year and has held various financial positions.

George R. Cogar, company president, announced also that Cogar has retained the New York City law firm of Paul, Weiss, Goldberg, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison to represent it in a lawsuit filed by International Business Machines Corp. Arthur L. Lyman will act as chief counsel.